Dear Parents/Carers,

Reading

We understand how busy evenings at home can be and how juggling everything can be tricky so we would like to offer a helping hand with reading.

While the end of the school day will remain at 3.05pm, on a Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, Rabbit, Squirrel and Hedgehog will open our doors at 2.50pm and invite you into the classrooms to read with your child for the last 15 minutes of the day. Please come round to your child's classroom through the side gate. Parents of multiples can alternate between classes throughout the week or take both children into one classroom and read with both children. The hall will be available to all to provide additional space. Story time and individual reading with the class teacher and TAs will take place for children whose parents/carers are unable to come in early.

For now, this opportunity is just open to our EYFS parents/carers. We will be starting these sessions on Monday 1st October; we hope to see you there!

Thank you for your continued support,

Mrs Boroughs, Mrs Ready and Miss Kennedy.
